Registering to vote
You can only vote in elections if your name is on the register of electors. Registering to pay council tax does not mean your name is automatically added to the electoral register.

Annual registration
We carry out an audit of all households from September to December every year. Details received during this period are included in the new register which is published annually by 1 December.

Rolling registration
By completing this form you are applying to be added to one of the rolling register supplements that we publish monthly between January and September. When you send us your form, we will add you to our list of alterations. We will write to tell you when your name(s) have been added to the register, this is usually within 7 weeks (subject to no one objecting). As a guide:

We may also tell the Electoral Registration Officer for your old address that you have moved, so that your name can be removed from that register.

If you apply during an election period, you may not be able to vote at that election in respect of your new address.

16/17 year olds
You may vote from the date of your 18th birthday.

Jury service
Anyone over 70 may not serve on a jury. If there is any other reason why you may not serve on a jury, you can notify the Court Service when appropriate.

Nationality
Citizens of the European Union, other than British or Irish may only vote in local or European parliamentary elections.

Which register
The Electoral Registration Officer makes and keeps two versions of the electoral register – the full and the edited register:

The full register lists everyone who is entitled to vote. You can check it by calling at the Council offices. Only certain people and organisations can have copies of the full register, and they can only use it for specified purposes. These include electoral uses, the prevention and detection of crime and checking your identity when you have applied for credit. The law says who can have a copy of the full register and what they can use it for. It is a criminal offence for them to pass it to anyone else or use it for any other purpose.

The edited register leaves out the names and addresses of people who have asked for them to be excluded from that version of the register. The edited register can be bought by anyone who asks for a copy and they may use it for any purpose.

Postal voting
Anyone on the electoral register can vote by post. You can arrange to have a postal vote for a particular election, for a set period or for an indefinite period. If you would like an application form, please put an x in the postal vote column overleaf against your name.
