Where do I have “local connection” to Stevenage?

How do I find out if I have a “local connection” to Stevenage?

Please visit https://www.gov.uk/find-local-council - here you can enter a post code and it will tell you which council the address falls under.

What is “local connection”?

Local connection broadly means that you live in an area with access to services provided by the local council.

What does it mean to have a “local connection” to Stevenage?

You have a local connection to Stevenage if you live in a confirmed Stevenage postcode. https://www.gov.uk/find-local-council

Use this link to confirm if Stevenage is your local authority.

If Stevenage is your local authority, this means Stevenage Borough Council is responsible for collecting refuse and recycling and Council Tax for your home.

This means you can apply to join the Stevenage Borough Council Housing Register and/or have access to Stevenage burial sites and crematoriums.

Please note other eligibility requirements apply to joining the Housing Register.

Where do I not have local connection?

You do not have a “local connection” to Stevenage if you live in a post code that is not covered by Stevenage Borough Council.

This includes areas that are on the borders of Stevenage, such as North Herts and East Herts.

Stevenage
BOROUGH COUNCIL

Stevenage BOROUGH COUNCIL