Changes You must Tell Us About

Tell us straight away if:

- You or your partner stop or start getting Income Support or Jobseeker's Allowance, Income Related Employment and Support Allowance or Pension Credit;
- Your partner's or you own wages go up or down;
- Your partner's or your own state benefits change;
- Your partner's or your own income changes;
- Anyone moves into or out of your home (including subtenants and lodgers);
- Any of your children leave school or move to another address;
- You move - this included moving to a different flat or room in the same property;
- Your partner's or your own savings change;
- Your rent changes;
- You or anyone living with you become a student, goes on a youth training scheme, goes into hospital or a nursing home, goes into prison, or gets, changes or leaves a job; or
- You or your partner are going to be away from home for more than one month.

You must tell us about these changes in writing within one month of the date change happened. If you don't tell us about these changes, you may lose money you are entitled to.

It is an offence not to tell us about any change of circumstances that affects your benefit. We may take court action against you and if we pay you too much benefit you may have to pay it back.
