The HERDS:

A murmuration of starlings

Follow the starlings from the front window to the foyer as we take part in the exciting international art and climate project, THE HERDS. Scan the QR code to find out more.

With funding from The Arts Fund, we've worked with three primary schools, two visual artists, a dance artist and a drone photographer to create puppets and used them (and the children who made them!) to create a stunning murmuration of starlings.
