When you should attend

Cases are listed in accordance with local hearing arrangements determined by the judiciary and implemented by court staff. Every effort is made to ensure that hearings start either at the time specified or as soon as possible thereafter. However, listing practices or other factors may mean that delay is unavoidable. Furthermore, in some instances a case may be released to another judge, possibly at a different court.

Contact the court for further information on the listing arrangements that may apply to your hearing.
