Apologies for not replying sooner. Our view is set out the submitted note prepared by Quod, para 3.1. We haven't been given access to HCC's model to allow us to interrogate or interpret it and therefore we do not see how it can't pass the CIL tests – it is not reasonable nor justified because no one has been given access to the very complex model.

Regards

Hertfordshire County Council Growth and Infrastructure Unit are seeking further clarification as to why Hill consider that a S106 contribution should not be sought for primary education to aid the drafting of their proof of evidence. They understand that you disagree with the principle of providing this, but are looking for your reasons why. Is this something you could provide?

Thanks
